Juliana goal’s is to use her degree to help others in achieving good well-being and a balanced life in a challenging world using an economical approach.

"The conference gave me the chance to take my first trip by myself, to gain self-confidence in being part of something huge for the first time and to gain new knowledge about a subject that is very important to me and my studies."

-Juliana

To learn more about the Youth Council, check it out here!