ONLINE COURSE ON GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP & THE SDGS

Ban Ki-moon Centre for Global Citizens
ONLINE COURSE

PROJECT OVERVIEW
BECOMING GLOBAL CITIZENS FOR A SUSTAINABLE SOCIETY

OBJECTIVE
This self-paced, free online course aims to reach out to interested people across the globe to learn about a global citizenship mindset and to encourage every individual to take actions to advance the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as global citizens.

LAUNCH
The course is publicly accessible on the GCED Online Campus: www.gcedonlinecampus.org

COURSE MODULE

- MODULE 1: Global Citizenship and the SDGs
- MODULE 2: Global Citizenship in a Challenging World
- MODULE 3: Global Citizenship for Transformation
- MODULE 4: Meet Global Citizens around the World
- MODULE 5: Plan for Action - Becoming Active Global Citizens

PARTNER
Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding (APCEIU) under the auspices of UNESCO

DONOR
Korea Foundation

PILLAR OF WORK
Education

COURSE CONTENTS
Each module contains lectures and interviews with experts, professors, leaders and advocates from various fields and sectors; interesting documentaries; workshop videos; animated videos; and case presentations of best practices

UPCOMING ONLINE COURSE
The next course on the topic of "Gender Equality" will be launched on the GCED Online Campus in early 2020.
ONLINE COURSE
PROJECTED IMPACT

PROMOTING GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP
Promoting a global citizenship mind-set by reaching out to broader global audiences regardless of nationality, age, gender, religion, occupation, educational background, etc. with the aim of leaving no one behind.

CAPACITY-BUILDING AS GLOBAL CITIZENS
Providing practical knowledge and introducing innovative practices of global citizenship that equips learners with the essential competencies to act as global citizens in daily life.

TAKING ACTION - ADVANCING SDGS
Examining and critically reflecting on societal issues on a local and global level; helping learners make an impact and contribute to achieving the SDGs.

STRENGTHENING GCED NETWORK
Connecting aspiring global citizens from various fields and sectors from all over the world to learn from each other and to strengthen the Global Citizenship Education (GCED) network in order to create global synergy.